

WOES OF THE LOCAL G. O. P.

Some of the Anti-Patterson Committee May Not Serve.

Delay Will Be Another Victory for Jake.

Members of the Committee on Investigation and Reorganization, appointed by the Republican County Committee last night, were not prepared to say this morning what plan of action they would pursue. Some of them may be absent, and nothing may be done until after the committee meets on Monday. The committee has been held on Dec. 12. This delay would be a victory for Patterson and his accused lieutenants.

It was Patterson's object to ruin time and by adroit management his object was achieved. He is staying on the ground, Patterson & Co. will have time to "fix" things for the primaries, and if they are victorious at the polls they will not only have gained a new lease of life, but may continue in power indefinitely.

This is now Patterson's score. He had his innuendo charges of treachery that have been made against him and other leaders, and he has provided the committee with a list of names. He has also secured the names of the committee members, and he has secured the names of the committee members, and he has secured the names of the committee members.

Edwin Einstein, who was the Republican candidate for Mayor in 1922, offered his name as a member of the committee. He is a well-known figure in the city, and he has a good record. He is a well-known figure in the city, and he has a good record. He is a well-known figure in the city, and he has a good record.

The anti-Patterson men say that Patterson's victory is only temporary. If he thinks they will drop the agitation against him, he is mistaken. They will fight him to the end. They will fight him to the end. They will fight him to the end.

Those opposed to the local machine as at present constituted will issue an appeal to voters. They say that if Patterson is in authority there will be no investigation. They say that if Patterson is in authority there will be no investigation. They say that if Patterson is in authority there will be no investigation.

DE WAS DR. PAXTON'S CRANK.

Harry Loomis Spring Annoyed the Popular Minister.

Not Miss Helen Gould While Pursuing Him.

It turned out that Harry Loomis Spring, the Chicago young man who was arrested in Boston yesterday for raising a row in the office of the F. L. Ames estate, and whose pockets were filled with political confessions in praise of Miss Helen Gould, is a crank who has been carrying on some daring operations in this city.

In fact, he was originally Rev. Dr. Paxton's agent in the city. He had been pursuing the clergyman with such persistence for many months that the latter's friends believe the persecution to which he was subjected by the fellow who had a great deal to do with his present state of mind.

Spring followed Dr. Paxton about like a shadow, escorted him to and from his church, called loudly at his house and used to attend every service, sitting in the third row from the front and fixing his head back eyes upon the pastor throughout the sermon, until the latter became alarmed and finally told him to get out.

Although he never made any disturbance or threatened violence, every one in the church was annoyed by his presence. Yet it seemed impossible to get rid of him. He was continually begging for assistance in one way or another.

It was here that he saw Miss Helen Gould, who is a member of Dr. Paxton's church. He was so much attracted by her that he followed her to her home, and he was finally turned out by the editor's order.

With regard to Dr. Paxton's present position, it is said that he is a member of the Young Men's Society and the Young Ladies' Auxiliary Society, in their haste to work upon the feelings and sentiment of the congregation in antagonizing the trustees and others of the church, have made a serious mistake.

The church managers, and by them I mean the trustees, elders and pillars of the church, decided by an almost unanimous vote to ask Dr. Paxton to resign. He would have tendered it and retired gracefully had not the young people come to the front with their foolish protest.

"Why is Dr. Paxton retired?" because he has lost his mind, it was said. We are an intelligent, progressive people, and we are not going to be misled by a man who is mentally unbalanced and might as well be a fool.

In his present poor health, Dr. Paxton cannot stand, and he is asked to resign simply because he is no longer capable of continuing the work in the church, as it should be carried forward.

HUNGER MADE HIM FAINT.

A Starving Man Flocked Up Unconscious in Brooklyn.

Patrick McNulty, a laborer, thirty-one years old, was found lying on the sidewalk in Jay, near High street, Brooklyn, at 3 o'clock this morning. The policeman who found him thought the man was drunk, and removed him to the station.

Dr. Eason was called. When the man was brought in, he saw at once that the man was suffering from hunger. Eason sent to a restaurant and had a good square meal prepared for the man. After he had eaten it he told the captain that he had been a long time out of employment, and was actually starving when he found himself on the street.

He was given a bed in the station house, and at 3 o'clock this morning he started out to renew his search for work.

Jagger's Will Provides for Scattering His Ashes to the Four Winds.

The Sea Robbers, a fishing club composed of jolly fellows of the east side, with headquarters at 28 Division street, will celebrate a weird event next Spring as the result of a provision of the will of Philip Jagger, one of its members.

Mr. Jagger kept a saloon in Avenue A, near Fifteenth street, for many years, and accumulated wealth enough to entitle him to the charitable characterization of "eccentric" for he was full of whims.

He was a widower and childless, and he obtained by his will that his body should be cremated. This was done yesterday at Fresh Pond, his body being lowered to the cemetery by a long line of carriages carrying Sea Robbers and hundreds of other east-side friends.

Jagger was a member of the Manhattan Schutzen Club, Capt. Schaefer's company, and he was a member of the Sea Robbers, a fishing club composed of jolly fellows of the east side, with headquarters at 28 Division street.

Jagger's will contained another weird clause which added to the weirdness of the event. It provided that his ashes should be divided into four parts, and the members are to take the ashes to the four sides of the city.

When it came to the north side, the ashes were given to the winds from the top of the Statue of Liberty, three years ago.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Verv Heavy Card to Be Decided at Clifton Track To-Day.

The Fourth Race May Prove the Best of the Day.

The entries at Clifton to-day are very heavy. Owners are apparently realizing that the season is drawing to an end and are following the sage "Father Time," who declares that there is no money to be made by keeping horses in their stalls.

The entries are limited to fifteen horses to a race, and in four races this limit has been reached. In another race there are ten entries and in the fourth seven. The racing promises to be interesting, but it will be long drawn out, unless the starter has extraordinary luck in getting the big fields away.

The best race of the day ought to be the fourth, a handicap at a mile and a sixteenth. Logan, Comanche, Charade, Kilkenny, Old Pepper, Lucky Clover and Lizzie are those named to go. Early Blossom, Minnie J., Capt. Wagner, Charles, Whim, Beldyrian and other fast ones meet in the fifth race, a dash of five furlongs. The other events are interesting.

The entries and selections are as follows:
